

- 1) Where do you live?
I live in Belgium - precisely in Liège. So proud to live in this little country
- 2) When did you start dancing and how did that happen?
I began dancing at 7 with my mother. At the beginning, I only went together with my mother but quickly I began to dance. At that time, it would be an evidence for me. Line dancing will be my passion. I had a lot of dreams
- 3) What is the first dance you ever learnt?
I don't remember my first dance...
- 4) Where is the most unusual place you have ever line danced?
I remember that one day we've danced on a boat with a little trip from Liège to Maastricht (Netherlands). That was so great and it was during the first years when I'd started Line dance.
- 5) Does anyone else in your family have the line dancing bug? If so, who?
Yes, for sure! My mum. We've started together and today it's still the same.

- 6) What made you decide to choreograph, and what was your first dance?
The first choreography I wrote was “Break my heart” in 2016 on a beautiful song from Gwenn Steffanie & Blake Shelton. This one was played by some country bands in Belgium, Netherlands et Germany. I was really happy with this little first dance.
- 7) What does line dance mean to you?
For me Line dance means a lot. This is my passion, my life. It gives me a lot of dreams. I’m so happy to see dancers on the dance floor. I also love the family of line dance.
- 8) Describe yourself in 1 sentence.
The value of a person is in its simplicity. Stay strong and never stop dreaming!
- 9) What does everyone need to know about you?
I’m a simple man. Shy and sometimes reserved. I love life, friends, dance and I try only to be happy. Of course, I’ve discouragements but I always catch up.
- 10) Do you have any advice or tips for anyone wanting to choreograph?
The most important is to choreograph dances with your heart. If you love a music and if you feel it, do it for you and not especially for others!
